

NATIONAL BLOOD DONOR MONTH
Community Blood Drive

Wed., January 3, 2:30-7 p.m.

Blood supplies dwindle during the holiday season. Please take a few minutes to give one last gift -- the gift of life -- by donating blood. Registration is encouraged but walk-ins are welcome. Donors will get a free movie pass. Register online with a Suffolk County library card at www.shpl.info, call 631.549.4411 or sign up in person at the Circulation Desk.

Saturday Night Specials

The library will again offer extended hours on Saturday evenings in January, February and March, followed by a stage show. Full library services will be available until 7 p.m., at which time a performance will begin in our theater. Check out this lineup:

Jan. 6: The Chiclettes and The Coda Band

Toe-tapping tunes from all your favorite girl bands through the decades.

Jan. 13: The Sympatico Jazz Quartet

A mixture of popular jazz and blues, from Nina Simone and Etta James to Sergio Mendes and Diana Krall.

Jan. 20: The New Vintage Orchestra

Familiar swing tunes and standards from this talented big band.

Jan. 27: The Hound of the Baskervilles

An intriguing Sherlock Holmes murder mystery theater production.

Feb. 3: Family Show — Pinocchio

It's Take Your Child to the Library Day! Plaza Theatrical will present this children's classic.

Feb. 10: The Brat Pack

Favorite tunes from the '80s, including Blondie, Madonna, Crowded House and more.

TICKET INFO: South Huntington cardholders can get free tickets to the Jan. 6 and 13 shows now. Tickets for the remaining shows listed available Jan. 6. Print them online at www.shpl.info or get them in person at the Circulation Desk.

Happy New Year!

The library staff and Board of Trustees wish a Happy, Healthy 2018 to all of our South Huntington neighbors!

Adult Winter Reading Challenge

Adult readers are invited to take on this year's Winter Reading Challenge, "Treat Your Cabin Fever." The challenge will run from January 6-February 24. Everyone who signs up will be invited to a Cabin Fever Reliever Wrap Party on Sunday, Feb. 25. Those who read or listen to at least five books will receive a special prize, and there will be plenty of opportunities to earn additional raffle tickets for gift baskets and the Grand Prize, a iPad mini, such as writing a brief book review, attending a program or following us on social media.

Registration begins Jan. 6, and the first 30 patrons to sign up will receive a special prize.

Many thanks to the Friends of the Library for their contribution to the challenge.

Please visit the Adult Reference Desk for more info, or call 631.549.4411.

AARP Tax Help: Register Jan. 2

Volunteer tax preparers from AARP will be here to provide free tax preparation for low- and middle-income taxpayers, with special attention to those 60 and over. Assistance will be offered on Tuesdays, beginning February 6 and ending on April 10, 9 a.m.-1 p.m. The program is free, but due to high demand, registration is required. South Huntington cardholders may sign up beginning Jan. 2. To make an appointment, visit the Circulation Desk or call the library at 631.549.4411. (If filing jointly, both people must attend the appointment.) If space remains, non-residents may sign up beginning Jan. 16.

Tax aide volunteers cannot prepare returns that include rental property, military income, alternative minimum tax or those with many stock transactions. Please bring all pertinent tax documents to your appointment, along with last year's tax returns.

Oakwood Wins Reading Challenge

The Library is proud to announce the winner of the 2017 Summer Reading Club Challenge. Oakwood Primary Center has earned bragging rights - and a beautiful plaque to display all year - as the school with the highest percentage of students to finish the "Build a Better World" program. The district-wide competition begins again in June 2018. A group of Oakwood students who participated in this past Summer's Reading Program are joined by, left to right: Public Library Director Joseph Latini, Children's Librarian Lisa Esposito, Assistant Director Janet Scherer, Oakwood Librarian Christine Le Clair and Principal Eileen Kerrigan.

ADULT PROGRAMS

ART EXHIBIT

Two Roads Taken. Paintings by Shain Bard and Liz Kolligs. Jan. 5-31. Reception: Sat., Jan. 6, 2-4 p.m.

Contemporary landscape artists Shain Bard and Liz Kolligs paint Long Island preserves, featuring paths, water, plants, trees and animals. Many people react to Bard's paintings by saying, "I know that place." She also wants them to feel the emotion and sensitivity that resonates from her art. Kolligs's paintings are primarily from her visits to Shu Swamp on the North Shore, which she calls "a rare pocket of nature." Her paintings always include animals, which she calls the "ambassadors of Shu Swamp."

Open to all.

FIND YOUR PASSION

LOVE YOUR LIFE WORKSHOP Thurs., Jan. 25, 6-9 p.m.

Do you love your life or do you feel that something is missing? Get in touch with the things that are most important to you by taking the Passion Test, a process based on the New York Times bestseller, The Passion Test by Janet Bray Attwood and Chris Attwood. Join Christina Loggia, certified Passion Test facilitator, and learn how to clearly define what matters to you and how to incorporate them into your life. There is a $5 fee for this 3-hour workshop, payable at registration beginning Jan. 4 for South Huntington cardholders, others Jan. 11. Enrollment is limited.

TO YOUR HEALTH

If you need more information about a diagnosis, treatment or medical test that's been ordered, you have free access to a wealth of information through the library:

- Medline features authoritative journal articles on medicine, nursing, dentistry, veterinary medicine and the health care system.
- The Health Reference Center provides access to articles in more than 2,800 medical journals and magazines.
- Complementary & Alternative Medicine covers all aspects of alternative medicine, providing sound medical information on a sometimes confusing field.
- Cancer is a database of topics about cancer.

You can also check out doctors in NY Doctor Profile, a database of doctors of medicine and doctors of osteopathy registered to practice in New York State.

To access, go to our website at www.shpl.info > Research > Articles & Databases > Health & Medicine. You will need a South Huntington Library card.

Medlineplus.gov

This is a free website produced by the National Library of Medicine. Use it to research more than 1,000 diseases and conditions, from aortic aneurysm to Zika virus. Learn about the latest treatments, look up information on a drug or supplement, find out the meanings of terms, and view medical videos and illustrations. Find links to health information in multiple languages. The website is accessible to all.

If you need more information or assistance, call the library at 631.549.4411 or stop by the Adult Reference Desk and ask a librarian.

CURRENT EVENTS

MAKING SENSE OF RECENT ELECTIONS Wed., Jan. 24 at 7 p.m.

Join Dr. David Sprintzen, professor emeritus at Long Island University, for a lecture and discussion. First the British vote to withdraw from the European Union, then the American election of Donald Trump startled experts and defied established political expectations. Similar forces have seemed to be at work at other European countries, though with modified results. What are we to make of these election results, and what do they portend for the future of Western liberal democracies? All welcome.

TECH TIME

ANDROID SMARTPHONES Thurs., Jan. 18 at 2 p.m.

Smartphones have changed the way we live. They really are more like small portable computers. Common Android phones are produced by manufacturers such as Samsung, Lenovo and LG. Join us to learn about the many tasks that your Android phone can perform, such as taking pictures, accessing e-mail, using the calendar to list appointments, playing music and more. All welcome.

Volunteers Needed: Literacy Tutor Training

Feb. 5, 7, 12 & 14, 10 a.m.-1 p.m.

Literacy Suffolk Inc. trains volunteer tutors to help adults overcome literacy obstacles in their lives. This 12-hour workshop prepares tutors to help adult students improve their ability to understand, speak, read, and write basic English. This workshop will concentrate on helping non-native English speakers improve their English skills. Register online at www.literacysuffolk.org or call 631.286.1649.
