

SOUTH HUNTINGTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Health Matters

Community Blood Drive

Wed., Oct. 7, 1-7 p.m.

Blood supplies are dangerously low. If you are able, please donate. The Blood Drive will take place in our Meeting Room, lower level. A mask is required. Donors' temperatures will be taken; tablets used for sign-in and snack areas will be sanitized after each use. Appointments are encouraged, but walk-ins will be admitted if there is space. Please call the library to make an appointment to donate. Thank you!

Flu Shot Clinic

Wed., Oct. 14, 1-3 p.m.

It's especially important to get a flu shot this year. Pharmacists from Rite Aid will be here to administer the vaccines, which are covered by most insurance. If not, there is a fee. The clinic will be held in the Program Room, lower level.

Please call the library beginning Oct. 1 to make an appointment to get your flu shot.

Operation Medicine Cabinet

Thurs., Oct. 22, 10 a.m.-12 p.m.

Do you have unwanted or expired medication? The Suffolk County Police Department will be collecting meds in the library lobby. Medicines being dropped off can only be in pill form and they MUST be emptied out of the bottles/containers and placed in a resealable bag. Also no sharps, liquids, gels, creams, etc.

Navigating the News

Join us live online for this media literacy series conducted by the Freedom Forum. Registration is now open online.

Media Ethics

Tues., Oct. 6 at 3 p.m.

In this session, we will consider the ethical issues journalists face as they strive to be accurate, fair and clear. Utilizing real-life case studies, we will examine the issues journalists may encounter, including privacy, anonymous sources and the pressure to be first.

Bias Meter

Tues., Oct. 20 at 3 p.m.

In this session we will take a step back from media negativity to look at the positive: What are the qualities of fair news coverage? Learn how to assess word choice, use of context and counterpoints to make informed, impartial evaluations of news in print, online and on social media sources.

Propaganda

Tues., Oct. 27 at 3 p.m.

We will look at the methods propaganda uses to worm its way into our brains by exploring four universal techniques for manipulating human emotions. We will also explore practical strategies to combat propaganda and improve the quality of our information ecosystem.

Fighting Fake News

Tues., Oct. 13 at 3 p.m.

We will explore the problem of fake news in today's media landscape. What qualifies as "fake" news? Why should you care what's real and what's not? How can the motivation behind news stories shape the content?

The Great Give Back 2020

This has been a challenging year for all, and for some, it has really been a struggle. An active and supportive community can lend a helping hand to those who are in need.

To that end, the Library will be collecting non-perishable food items for Long Island Cares Food Bank. Bins will be located in the library lobby. Items will be collected Oct. 17-30.

The Children's Department will be hosting a Pet Food Drive. Donations will help needy pet owners care for their furry friends. Items accepted include unopened dry or canned dog and cat food; pet treats and new toys; food for other pets, such as hamsters, guinea pigs, reptiles and birds, and kitty litter. Collection bins will be in the Children's Room Oct. 17-30.

In addition, teens have the opportunity donate food items, learn more about the LI Cares organization and earn community service. See Page 3 for details.

Art Exhibit

A Group Exhibit: 'Interweaving'
Oct. 2-28. Alfred Van Loen Gallery, lower level.

"Interweaving" is a group exhibit that exudes the liveliness and fun of the six member artists: Dong Hee Lee, Dong Kyu Kim, Jayoung Yoon, Jin Cho, Stephanie S. Lee, and Sueim Koo, all of whom were born and spent their childhoods in Korea prior to living in the U.S. to continue their journey as an artist. Each individual's struggle, progress, and change under different environments are reflected through their artwork. Their unique approaches create dynamic energy yet it is appealingly harmonious at the same time.

More than 18 pieces of diverse artwork done by six unique artists, including hand-stitched art, hand-carved relief, and art pieces made of human hair, will be featured. The artists hope the exhibition conveys the positive energy and hope in difficult times to the art lovers on Long Island and beyond.

@ Your Library Oct. 2020

Print Your Photos @ the Library

Did you know that the South Huntington Public Library has a Print Budii, where you can print photos from your smart phone? To get started: Go to the Print Budii website at <https://libraries.printbudii.com/pwa/>. Choose the South Huntington Library location, upload the photos you wish to print and pay with your credit card. You will receive a code that you enter at our Print Budii kiosk, located in Adult Services on the main level, to print out your 4x6 photos. Photos are 35 cents each and there is a minimum of 2 photos per order.

NATIONAL FRIENDS OF LIBRARIES WEEK
Oct. 18-24, 2020

Support Your Library: Be A Friend!

The Friends of the South Huntington Library have been supporting the library since 1963. They contribute each year to the Summer Reading Clubs, award a scholarship to a Whitman senior, host the annual Big Band Veterans Tribute concert and hold annual fundraisers, such as the Fall Fair and Book Sale. In the past, they coordinated a successful Donor Recognition Campaign to raise money for the Outdoor Garden.

However, because the usual fundraisers cannot be held this year, the Friends are depending on membership dues to sustain them until these events can once again be safely held. Please join the Friends! If you are already a member, it's time to renew. (The membership year runs from Sept. 1-Aug. 31.)
