

SOUTH HUNTINGTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Librarian Gets Top Honor

Georgina Rivas-Martinez has been named the 2020 REFORMA Northeast Chapter Pura Belpré

Librarian of the Year for Outstanding Library Service to Latinos.

Offered bi-annually, the award honors a librarian for his or her service and dedication to providing library services to Spanish-speaking and Latino communities.

Georgina is a Young Adult and Spanish Services librarian. She started at the South Huntington Public Library in the summer of 2016 and was promoted to full time in July 2019. She also handles outreach and has created a Spanish newsletter.

As a minority, she says she feels it is important to reach out to the Latinx population and provide them with access to the tools the library offers.

Georgina received her Master's degree in Library and Information Science from Long Island

University Post in 2017 and her Archive and Cultural Preservation Certificate from Queens College in 2019.

She was the recipient of the REFORMA Northeast Lillian Marrero Scholarship in 2016 as well as the Judith Rivas Mini-Grant in 2019, with which she created a successful Hispanic Heritage family-oriented program in South Huntington.

In 2019, Georgina was selected as an American Library Association Emerging Leader.

She is currently active in the Lillian Marrero Scholarship Committee for REFORMA Northeast Chapter and a member of the Pura Belpré Expansion Task Force.

"Enchantment," an exhibit by collage artist Rebecca Bahr. Dec. 5-Jan.6.

Rebecca's art mirrors memories of her British upbringing. "I spent my formative years transfixed by the pageantry and history of England. As a young girl, I had a penchant for history, myths and legends, fairies and gnomes," she says. "I became enchanted by enchantment and remain so to this day as I compose my art."

She notes that her technique requires a great deal of attention to ensure the pieces fit seamlessly together in more of a mosaic than classic overlay collage.

"In viewing my art, I hope to enlighten, delight and inspire as I conjure up a refined and reflective world of make-believe and intrigue with patterns that mesh and stimulate questions, leaving one to wonder," she adds.
