

SOUTH HUNTINGTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Community E-Waste Collection

Sat., May 8, 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Clear out your old-unwanted electronics! Representatives from Arrow Scrap will accept the following items for recycling: Computers, LCD monitors and flat screen TVs, printers, fax machines, and all peripheral computer equipment. They also accept hard drives, laptops, and all computer components, as well as cell phones, tablets, and other consumer electronics equipment. They accept all types of wires, old adapters, lead acid batteries (i.e., old car batteries), rechargeable lithium-ion and Ni-Mh batteries, as well as general scrap metal (copper, aluminum, steel, stainless steel, small appliances) and car parts.

All data containing devices collected at the event (including hard drives), will be securely transferred to Arrow Scrap's facility for complete destruction (shredding). Arrow is R2/RIOS Certified and Audited for responsible recycling and secure data destruction.

Arrow Scrap cannot accept the following for recycling: Alkaline batteries (i.e., Duracell, Energizer), NiCd rechargeable batteries, items containing mercury, tube televisions, closed tanks of any kind, anything with oil, fuel or Freon, as well as any paper, rubbish, garbage, paint, biohazardous, medical, or general waste.

Thanks for Your Support!

South Huntington voters elected two trustees to the library board on Tuesday, April 13.

Trustee Stuart Horowitz was re-elected to a five-year term, and Trustee Eleanora Ferrante was re-elected to a one-year term.

They will join Trustees Pat Dillon, Stella Fox and Eileen Sullivan to shepherd the library as it emerges into a post-pandemic era.

There was not a budget proposition on the ballot this year, as there was no change in the tax levy.

The Friends of the Library sponsored a free raffle for those who voted. Winners were Donna Maltese, Bluetooth speaker; Regina Zorn, FitBit Versa 2; Tae Lee, Kindle Fire; and Sally Nikolis, Alexa Home.

Many thanks to all who voted. We appreciate your support!

Help for Job Seekers, Vets

Job seekers and veterans have access to services through BrainFuse, one of the library's online learning resources that is free with your South Huntington Library card.

VetNow provides live veterans navigators, who can assist with VA benefits and community resources.

There is also support for those transitioning from military to civilian careers. Get help developing a résumé and preparing for job interviews.

Veterans who are headed to college can also access test prep and study skills resources.

Job seekers can hone their search using personality and career assessment, build their résumé using templates or the live writing coach, and prepare for interviews with sample questions and other tips.

Also on BrainFuse, adults can learn Microsoft Office with online tutorials and study for their high school equivalency or citizenship tests.

To access, go to our website at www.shpl.info>Online Learning. You will need a South Huntington Library card.

Check Out Our Seed Library!

How does your garden grow? Add some variety by borrowing packets of heirloom seeds from our seed library. We've got everything from artichokes to zucchini!

To get started, visit the Seed Library in the Adult Services area on the main floor and choose up to five packets of seeds for your garden, while supplies last.

We encourage you to use eco-friendly gardening techniques and to save some of your harvested seeds to restock the Seed Library for next year.

For more information or to view our seed catalog, please visit www.shpl.info/seed-library.

YOUR LIBRARY IS NOW
Fine Free!

READ MORE,
WORRY LESS.

South Huntington Public Library is no longer charging late fees on overdue materials (with some exceptions).

Just bring them back & check out more!

Visit www.shpl.info for details.

The Library will be closed on May 30 & 31— Memorial Day crime dramas have treachery flourishing just under the surface of acres of lazy, bucolic hills and valleys. Movie fans will also find familiar backdrops for their favorite scenes in the Cotswolds. Called the "Soul of England," the region's appeal lies in its charm, unspoiled villages and countryside. It's even been designated an "area of outstanding natural beauty." But the prettiness of the region is just a starting point. Each village has a distinctly different personality. Some have quirks while others have buried secrets. Join The Savvy Sightseer for a tour of the lovely Cotswolds. Watch the video on our program calendar (click on the event).

Video Vacation: The Cotswolds, England Fri., May 14 at 11 a.m.

These programs are in partnership with the public libraries in the Town of Huntington.

Alfred Van Loen Gallery

'Coast to Coast,' a solo exhibition from printmaker Beth Atkinson. May 8-June 10.

The exhibit will include woodblock and linocut prints that are hand colored by the artist.

The oldest form of printmaking is woodcut, a relief process in which knives and other tools are used to carve a design into the surface of a wooden block. The raised areas are inked and printed, while the recessed areas do not retain the ink and remain blank. Linocuts create a surface similar to a soft ground etching.

Atkinson recalls her love of making this art. She finds the smell of the wood and the challenge of creating the image therapeutic and invigorating. Her work is inspired by her world travels and visits to national parks. Atkinson is a retired art educator. Her art has been exhibited across the US and featured in magazines. She also works in collage, book arts, fused glass and sculpture.

The exhibit may be viewed during regular library hours. A virtual exhibit will be available on the library website at www.shpl.info.

Learn Employment Skills

South Huntington cardholders have free access to a number of online resources that can help you learn new employment skills or update existing skills. LinkedIn Learning (formerly Lynda.com) is a free resource featuring thousands of video tutorials on business and technical skills – from Microsoft Access to Zoom videoconferencing and everything in between. Users can watch at their own pace, or even watch a video again.

Gale Courses offers free, six-week interactive, instructor-led courses that are taken online. Courses are focused on professional development, technology skills, and personal enrichment. Niche Academy offers video tutorials on how to use library resources, including e-books and research databases. (For assistance with résumé development and job search, please see the BrainFuse article on Page 1.)

To access these resources, you will need a South Huntington Library card. Go to our website at www.shpl.info and click on the link for Online Learning.
