

SATURDAY NIGHT SERIES Music, Magic & Comedy

The Library will wrap up its 2016 Winter Series with four great shows, featuring something for everyone. Full library services will be available until 7 p.m. when the show will begin. Check out this line-up:

March 5: The KT Connection

KT Connection is a new and exciting musical collaboration featuring singer-songwriters Kirsten Maxwell and Toby Tobias. They will perform harmonies and arrangements of popular songs that you will recognize and enjoy, as well as new and original music you've yet to discover.

March 12: Teen Rockfest

The library and the Teen Advisory Board co-host this concert featuring local teen talent live on the library stage.

March 19: Comedy Night

It's OK to laugh out loud in the library! Join us for this comedy showcase featuring Mark Brier and fellow comedians who will have us laughing in the aisles with clean jokes, anecdotes, impressions and more.

March 26: Magic Beyond Imagination

Magician Bob McEntee will delight audience members of all ages with his entertaining family show featuring amazing magic, comedy, storytelling, lots of audience participation and much more.

TICKET INFO: Free tickets the March 5 show are available now. Tickets to remaining shows are available to South Huntington cardholders beginning March 1. Tickets are valid until 6:50 p.m., when non-ticket holders will be seated, if there is space.

Meet Local Authors: Sat., April 9

Whether you're a serious bookworm, an avid reader, a budding writer or a proud library patron, join us for our Local Author Fair on Saturday, April 9, from 1-4 p.m.

You will get to meet published authors and have the opportunity to talk with them about their books. The fair will feature writers of fiction, non-fiction, e-books and more. Copies of books will be available for sale and signing.

If you are a published author and would like to participate, the application deadline is March 9. This is a unique opportunity for published authors to promote their work, attract new readers, connect with established fans and talk shop with other authors. Applications are available at the library and online at www.shpl.info. Space is limited and will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. For more information, call Catherine Schmoller at 631.549.4411 or e-mail cschmoller@shpl.info.

Budget Vote, Trustee Election Tuesday, April 5, 3-9 p.m.

The South Huntington Public Library will hold its annual budget vote and trustee election on Tuesday, April 5 from 3-9 p.m. The library board of trustees will hold its annual budget meeting on Monday, March 28 at 7 p.m. Copies of the proposed spending plan are available in the library and online at www.shpl.info.

The proposed budget calls for a tax increase of 0.6 percent which results in an estimated tax rate increase of 12 cents. For the average homeowner with property assessed at $3,300, the annual library tax bill is estimated to be $441.90, an increase of $4.01. Your vote is extremely important. Please don't be complacent. Make sure you have a say in the quality of library service that will be available to you and your family. Visit your library on April 5th and let us know how we are doing.

Voter Information

To vote on April 5, you must be at least 18, a U.S. citizen and a resident of the South Huntington School District (#13) for at least 30 days. If you are not registered to vote, you may do so on April 5. Identification proving residency is required. Applications for absentee ballots are available at the Reference Desk or by calling the library at 631.549.4411 to request a mailed ballot. Completed absentee ballots must be received by Tue., April 5 at 5 p.m.

Trustee Petitions

The filing deadline for petitions to run for library trustee is Mon., March 7, 2016, at 5 p.m. There are two seats available this year: One one-year term and one five-year term. Petitions may be picked up at the Adult Reference Desk.

Every Child Matters Community Café and Conversation Wednesday, March 23 at 7 p.m.

Join us for this workshop where you will work together with other community members to help identify the most pressing issues facing children and families in the Huntington Station area. Those interested in working on a continuing basis will form a community cluster that will continue to meet and advocate for the identified changes. Sponsoring the event is Every Child Matters, a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit, non-partisan organization working to promote the adoption of smart policies and make public investments in children, youth, and families a national political priority.

The program will be held in the Library Meeting Room on the lower level. Refreshments will be served. All welcome.

PTA REFLECTIONS: Tues., March 29 at 6 p.m.

"Let Your Imagination Fly" is this year's theme of the National PTA's Reflections cultural arts program, which is coordinated locally by the South Huntington PTA Council. Students interpreted the theme in a variety of media. The winning entries will be on exhibit in the Alfred Van Loen Gallery during April.

The program will be held in the Library Meeting Room on the lower level. Refreshments will be served. All welcome.

Need E-books? Homework Help? There's an app for that.

Always have the library in your pocket or purse. The South Huntington Library's free mobile app is available in the Apple App and Google Play stores. To get started, scan this QR code with your phone or go to www.shpl.info/mobileapp.

THE NEW RULES OF COLLEGE ADMISSIONS

Thur., Mar. 10 at 7 p.m.

College admissions expert Michael Binder will be here with information that high school sophomores and juniors and their parents need as they begin their quest to get accepted to college. Topics will include advice for successful college visits, strategies to maximize your admission potential, five key steps that can set you apart from other applicants, how to determine colleges that are best for you and how to maximize your scholarships and financial aid. Open to all.

INSIDE TIPS FROM A BOOK EDITOR

Sat., Mar. 12, 2-4 p.m.

"The stick turned blue..." When you hear those opening words, what do you think? As a painter, a nervous woman, a scientist or a romance writer, it could go in many directions! Hopefully, though, it's equally captivating. The opening lines of a book can make or break a story. Please join editorial consultant Mary-Theresa Hussey, a former long-time editor at Harlequin, as she talks about a variety of openings, gives examples, and shows how the right opening can draw the reader into your story. Co-sponsored with Long Island Romance Writers.

FOLK MUSIC JAM

Sun., Mar. 13 at 1 p.m.

The Folk Music Society of Huntington will host its monthly acoustic jam. New participants and listeners welcome.

HOME STUDY ORIENTATION

'COLOR YOUR WORLD' ADULT COLORING

Weds., Mar. 16 & 30, 10 a.m.-12 p.m.

Try out the latest trend: Coloring for adults. It's so popular, in fact, that many of the best-selling soft cover books are adult coloring books! Find out why people enjoy it so much while you meet others and socialize. The library will provide coloring sheets and art supplies, but feel free to bring your own. Adults only, please.

ART EXHIBIT

"Organic Networks," prints by Lorena Salcedo-Watson. March 5-25. Reception: Sat., March 5, 2-4 p.m.

Lorena Salcedo-Watson is an artist and print-maker. Her current work consists of large-scale charcoal drawings and prints. Her imagery focuses on the relationships between the structures and essential qualities of life forms. Based on a fascination with human anatomy, botany, and entomology, she transforms and re-interprets aspects of nature, filtering through personal experience, observation and imagination.

EVENING BOOK CLUB

Wed., Mar. 16 at 7 p.m.

Join us for a discussion of Moloka'i by Alan Brennert. Multiple copies of the book will be available at the Circulation Desk. New participants and listeners welcome.

ADULT PROGRAMS

MONDAY MOVIES @ 2:30 P.M.

March 7: The Intern Ben Whittaker is a 70-year-old widower who has discovered that retirement isn't all it's cracked up to be. Seizing an opportunity to get back in the game, he becomes a senior intern at an online fashion site. Robert DeNiro, Anne Hathaway, Linda Lavin. PG-13, 121 mins. (rescheduled from Feb. 8.)

March 14: Big Stone Gap Ave Maria Mulligan has lived her whole life in tiny Big Stone Gap, a picturesque coal-mining town in southwestern Virginia. When she's not making deliveries from her family's pharmacy, she directs the annual outdoor drama festival, keeps chaste company with her longtime beau, and exchanges good-natured barbs with the local hunk. Based on the bestseller and directed by Adriana Trigiani. Ashley Judd, Whoopi Goldberg. PG-13, 103 mins.

March 21: Everest Inspired by the incredible attempt to reach the summit of the world's highest mountain, the film documents the awe-inspiring journey of two different expeditions challenged beyond their limits by one of the fiercest snowstorms ever encountered by mankind. Jake Gyllenhaal, Robin Wright, Keira Knightley. PG-13, 122 mins.

March 28: Suffragette A moving drama exploring the passion and heartbreak of the women who risked everything in their fight for equality in early 20th-century Britain. The story centers on Maud, a working wife and mother whose life is forever changed when she is secretly recruited to join the U.K.'s growing Suffragette movement. Carey Mulligan, Meryl Streep. PG-13, 107 mins.

FRIDAY FLICKS @ 7 P.M.

March 4: Burnt Chef Adam Jones had it all — and lost it. A rock star chef of a two-star Michelin restaurant with the bad habits to match, the former enfant terrible of the Paris restaurant scene only ever cared about the thrill of creating explosions of taste. To land his own kitchen and that third elusive Michelin star though, he'll need the best of the best on his side, including the beautiful Helene. Bradley Cooper, Sienna Miller. R, 101 mins.

March 11: Victor Frankenstein Told from Igor's perspective, we see the troubled young assistant's dark origins, his redemptive friendship with the young medical student Viktor Von Frankenstein, and become eyewitnesses to the emergence of how Frankenstein became the man, and the legend, we know today. Daniel Radcliffe, James McAvoy. PG-13, 109 mins.

March 18: Our Brand is Crisis A Bolivian presidential candidate failing badly in the polls enlists the firepower of an elite American management team, led by the deeply damaged but still brilliant strategist 'Calamity' Jane Bodine. Sandra Bullock, Billy Bob Thornton. R, 107 mins.

March 25: Miss You Already An honest and powerful story following two best friends, Milly and Jess, as they navigate life's highs and lows. Inseparable since they were young girls, they can't remember a time they didn't share everything, but nothing prepares them for the day Milly is hit with life-altering news. Drew Barrymore, Toni Collette. PG-13, 113 mins.

FEATURED DATABASE

Consumer Reports

Perhaps you're in the market for a new lawn mower this spring. Possibly your washer and dryer are on its last legs. Or maybe it's time for a new car. Before you go shopping, check in with Consumer Reports. South Huntington cardholders have access to Consumer Reports' searchable, online database of product test reports, ratings, recommendations, pricing information and more, for everything from air conditioners and baby monitors to vacuum cleaners and wood stains. You'll also find articles containing advice for what to look for when buying just about anything, from baby carriers to yogurt.

In the "Issues That Matter" section, you can read up on consumer issues, such as how to end robo calls, food safety, health care and the Volkswagen emissions recall. There's even an article on the best insect repellents to protect against the Zika virus.

The library also subscribes to Consumer Reports magazine, which can be found behind the Adult Reference Desk, along with several Consumer Reports Buying Guides.

To access the online database: Go to www.shpl.info and click on the red "Research" Menu>Articles & Databases>Consumer Information. You will need a South Huntington library card.

Readers' Advisory Resources Online

Looking for your next great read? Besides asking family, friends and your local librarian for recommendations, there are a few library resources you can use.

NextReads

This is a free online newsletter that is e-mailed to you periodically. When you sign up, you can choose areas of interest, from audiobooks, historical fiction and business to picture books and New York Times bestsellers.

The newsletters feature new releases as well as recommended titles. When you sign up, you can see the latest editions so you can be sure they will be of interest.

To access: Go to www.shpl.info and click on the red "Services" Menu>Online Services>NextReads.

NoveList Plus

This online resource is a comprehensive readers' advisory source for fiction and nonfiction. With its intuitive interface and extensive feature content, NoveList Plus will help you to answer the question of what to read next.

Readers can search by genre, title, author and keyword. If you type in the title of a book or author you enjoyed, NoveList will come up with a list of additional titles and read-alikes. You can also search by reading level; NoveList suggests books for children, teens and adults.

To access: Go to www.shpl.info and click on the red "Research" Menu>Articles & Databases>Books & Literature>NoveList Plus. You will need a South Huntington library card.

Can you help me ...

Library Pinterest Pages

The library has two Pinterest pages, one for children and one for adults, and they each feature "pins" that can help you find your next book.

For example, on the children's Pinterest page, you can find picture books, chapter books, graphic novels, award winners and books for boys.

The adult Pinterest page has a board just for book recommendations, as well as historical fiction, book club picks, read-alikes, series and more.

To access: Go to www.shpl.info and click on the red Pinterest logo, then choose adult or children.

Ask A Librarian

Of course, you can always ask a librarian for recommendations, and you can check out our themed displays and staff picks when you are visiting the library.

Happy reading!

To Your Health: Medical Databases At Your Fingertips

The South Huntington Library subscribes to five online databases that offer patrons free access to a wealth of medical information. They can help you learn about your doctor, research health issues and even tap into alternative medicine.

Among the resources:

Cancer

Access a vast amount of information about this disease, which affects so many of our families. There are hundreds of articles about types of cancer, treatments, prevention, end of life care, pain management and more.

Complementary & Alternative Medicine

This comprehensive database covers all aspects of complementary and alternative medicine, both past and present, providing sound medical advice on a controversial and sometimes confusing field. Topics range from acupuncture and art therapy to vitamins and yoga.

NY Doctor Profile

Find doctor profiles for all licensed doctors of medicine and doctors of osteopathy who are registered to practice medicine in New York State. Learn about physicians' medical education, services and any legal actions that may have been taken against them.

MEDLINE

The resource offers authoritative journal articles on medicine, nursing, dentistry, veterinary medicine, and the health care system with links to full text where available. Here, you can search for a zillion different topics.

To access any of these resources: Go to www.shpl.info and click on the red "Research" Menu>Articles & Databases>Health and Medicine. You will need a South Huntington library card.

ALZHEIMER'S CAREGIVERS WORKSHOP Wed., March 9 at 7 p.m.

If you are a caregiver to someone with Alzheimer's or dementia, please join us to learn about available resources and services. Representatives from the Parker Institute will be here to outline their Caregiver Support Initiative, funded by the New York State Department of Health, through which 1,000 caregivers of individuals with Alzheimer's Disease will be served this year by Parker staff and community partners. Specific programs offered include care consultations, case management, educational resources, support groups and respite. Additionally, 300 volunteers will receive training through Parker and provide a host of home based supports to individuals with Alzheimer's such as friendly visiting, light chores, telephone reassurance and leisure activities. Volunteers will assist the Alzheimer's client while the caregiver takes a break and attends to personal needs, appointments and visits. Scholarships are available for social model and home care programs based on need and extreme burden of care. Q & A to follow, and handouts will be available. All welcome.
