

3rd Congressional District Candidates Forum Tuesday, Nov. 1 at 7 p.m.

The Library and Huntington Matters are scheduled to co-host a forum featuring candidates for the 3rd Congressional District. The seat is currently held by U.S. Rep. Steve Israel (D), who is stepping down at the end of his term. Vying for his seat are Democrat Tom Suozzi, and Republican Jack Martins. The forum will be moderated by the League of Women Voters of Huntington. All welcome.

Don't Forget to Vote Tuesday, November 8, 6 a.m.-9 p.m.

This is an important year, with Huntington Town voters electing the President of the United States, U.S. Senator, U.S. Congressional Representative, and New York State Senator and Assemblyman.

To check your voter registration status and polling place location, go to:

www.suffolkvotes.com.

You can also visit vote411.org to get information about the ballot and candidates.

Author Alyson Richman and Friends

Author Alyson Richman (center) visited on Sunday, October 17 to talk about her latest novel, The Velvet Hours. The event, attended by over 100 library patrons, was sponsored by the Friends of the South Huntington Library, including (l. to r.) Kate Breen, Jill Linden, secretary; Catherine Schmoller, Kate Rea, vice president; Marge Vezzani, president, and Laraine Schirripa. Thank you to all the Friends volunteers who contributed their time and talent to help make the program successful.

November is...

Picture Book Month

Stop by and check out the South Huntington Library's huge collection of picture books. On Thurs., Nov. 17 kids in grades 1-4 can illustrate their own picture book. See back page for details.

South Huntington Public Library newsletter

November is NaNoWriMo (National Novel Writing Month)

South Huntington writers of all ages are invited to participate in the library's NaNoWriMo events this month. Whether you are an aspiring author or a seasoned writer, we hope you will tap into your inner word-smith and see what happens.

The basis of NaNoWriMo is committing to a daily word count, so that at the end of the month you have a solid draft of a story or novel. There will be programs for all ages. Please check the Young Adult and Children's sections in this newsletter for details.

Here are programs for adults:

NaNoWriMo: COME WRITE IN
Sat., Nov. 5, 11 a.m.-4 p.m.; AND Wed.,
Nov 9, Mon., Nov. 21 and Wed., Nov. 30,
5:30-8:30 p.m.

Calling all writers! At these writers' open house sessions, bring your laptop and join other writers to make a dent in your NaNoWriMo word count. Meet other writers and share your writing experiences, inspirations and ideas. Refreshments provided by the Friends of the South Huntington Library.

WRITING WORKSHOP: INDELIBLE DIALOGUE

Sat., Nov. 19, 2-4 p.m.

Talk isn't cheap. Conversations can make or break a book and help your characters pop off the page. In this hour, we'll unpack a bag of tricks you can use to cut the flab in your gab and unleash unforgettable communication. Join screenwriter and novelist Damon Suede for an arsenal of nitty-gritty techniques to turn that chatter into convos that matter. All welcome. Co-sponsored with Long Island Romance Writers (LIRW).

SAVE THE DATE: YOU'VE WRITTEN A BOOK, NOW WHAT?
SECRETS TO GETTING PUBLISHED
Wed., Dec. 7 at 7 p.m.

Annual Veterans Big Band Tribute Concert Sunday, Nov. 6 at 2 p.m.

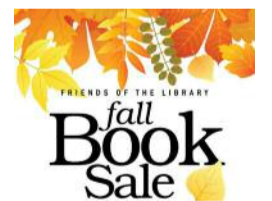

Co-sponsored with the Friends of the South Huntington Library, The Swingtime Big Band is back with nostalgic tunes that will have you dancing in the aisles.

Free tickets are available to South Huntington cardholders online at www.shpl.info; call 631.549.4411, or get them in person at the Circulation Desk. Tickets are valid until 1:50 p.m., after which non-ticket holders will be seated, if there is space.

Friends of the Library Fall Book Sale November 5 & 6

Don't miss the Fall Book Sale on Saturday, Nov. 5 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday Nov. 6 from 1-5 p.m. There will be something for readers of all ages. The sale will take place in the gallery on the lower level.

Need E-books? Homework Help? There's an app for that.

Antarctica Slide Lecture

Sat., Nov. 12 at 3 p.m.

Antarctica, the white continent, is the harshest place on Earth, truly a land of extremes. Holly Gordon, environmental and fine art photographer, will present a digital slide presentation that provides an intimate portrait of this remote region that few people ever visit. All welcome.

ADULT PROGRAMS

MONDAY MOVIES @ 2:30 P.M.

Nov. 7: The Shallows Nancy is surfing on a secluded beach and finds herself on the feeding ground of a great white shark. Though she is stranded only 200 yards from shore, survival proves to be the ultimate test of wills, requiring all of Nancy's ingenuity, resourcefulness, and fortitude. Blake Lively. PG-13, 86 mins.

Nov. 14: Money Monster In this real-time high stakes thriller, financial TV host Lee Gates and his producer Patty, are put in an extreme situation when an irate investor who has lost everything forcefully takes over their studio. George Clooney, Julia Roberts. R, 99 mins.

Nov. 21: Ghostbusters 2016 Following a ghost invasion of Manhattan, paranormal enthusiasts Erin Gilbert and Abby Yates, nuclear engineer Jillian Holtzmann, and subway worker Patty Tolan band together to stop the otherworldly threat. Melissa McCarthy, Kristen Wiig. PG-13, 117 mins.

Nov. 28: Hologram for the King In a rising Saudi Arabian city, far from weary, recession-scarred America, struggling businessman Alan Clay pursues a last-ditch attempt to stave off foreclosure, pay his daughter's college tuition, and finally do something great. Tom Hanks. R, 98 mins.

FRIDAY FOODIE FILM FEST @ 7 P.M.

Nov. 4: Who Is Killing the Great Chefs of Europe? (1978) A fast-food tycoon, his ex-wife and a gourmet magazine publisher are involved in a fast and funny murder mystery. The publisher is ordered by his doctor to give up his favorite dishes to lose weight, and one by one the creators of those dishes are murdered — in the manner of their specialties! George Segal, Jacqueline Bisset. PG, 112 mins.

Nov. 11: Babettes Feast (1987) At once a rousing paean to artistic creation and the ultimate film about food, the Oscar-winning Babettes Feast is a deeply beloved cinematic treasure. This is a layered tale of a French housekeeper with a mysterious past who brings quiet revolution in the form of one exquisite meal to a circle of starkly pious villagers in late 19th-century Denmark. Danish, French or Swedish dialogue with English subtitles. G, 103 mins.

Nov. 18: Big Night (1996) The story of two brothers whose Italian restaurant is on the brink of bankruptcy. Their only chance for success is to risk everything they own on an extravagant feast for bandleader Louis Prima. But their big night is complicated by a lovers' triangle, a sneaky restaurant rival, and the hilarious perfection of chef Primo. Stanley Tucci, Isabella Rossellini, Tony Shaloub. R, 109 mins.

Nov. 25: Waitress (2007) Now a hit Broadway show! Trapped in an unhappy marriage, a small-town waitress finds her life forever changed by an unplanned pregnancy. Transforming her misery into delicious desserts, she sets out to win a pie contest and free herself from her abusive husband. Keri Russell, Nathan Fillion. PG-13, 108 mins.

Research Your Family History

As you gather with relatives this holiday season, you may wonder how your family came to be. South Huntington cardholders have access to a variety of resources that can help you search for your roots.

Ancestry.com (Library Edition)

The popular resource is available for free, but only inside the library. Users can search all sorts of public records databases, from census and Social Security to military and immigration from a library computer or their own device. It also features a Learning Center with tips and suggestions to help you with your quest. There are also downloadable forms that can help you keep track of your research.

Ancestry.com Library Edition is only available for use inside the library. Please visit the Reference Desk to get started.

Fold3

A project of Ancestry.com, this database allows users to search military records, from the Revolutionary War to today. Users can also access Ancestry Academy, which features online tutorials in topics like Getting Started, Vital Records and Tips & Tricks for using the site.

Ellis Island & Castle Garden

These two databases contain archives for those who immigrated between 1892-1957 and 1820-1892, respectively.

HeritageQuest Online

This resource features U.S. federal census records from 1790-1930 plus searchable published family histories. It also has Revolutionary War-era records as well as Freedman's Bank (1865-1874), which was founded to serve African-Americans, and Native American census records.

To access these four resources: Go to our website at www.shpl.info and Databases>Biography & Genealogy. You will need a South Huntington Library card.

GENEALOGY RESEARCH AT THE NEW YORK CITY ARCHIVES

Tues., Nov. 15 at 7 p.m.

The New York City Municipal Archives contain a treasure trove of late 1800s and early 1900s family genealogy records. Michael Chaplan will show you how family history researchers can achieve excellent results. All welcome.

FEATURED DATABASE Career Cruising

This database is useful for teens who are charting a course for their future as well as for adults who may be looking for a career or job change.

This free, online resource helps users learn more about themselves through the use of personal assessments to find careers that match their skills and suit their interests. Once potential careers are identified, users can look at various job types within that field as well as the educational requirements. Then, they can search nationwide for schools, colleges and universities that offer that course of study. Information is also available about careers in the military. Potential students can also access videos, infographics and online resources to help them assess their financial aid options. Finally, there are employment and job search resources, including building a résumé, letter writing and job interview skills as well as a searchable database of available jobs.

To access: Go to the library's website at www.shpl.info>Research>Articles & Databases>Jobs & Careers. You will need a South Huntington Library card.

Visit a Museum This Fall — On Us

Now that the weather has cooled, you and your family may be looking for an indoor activity. We've got just the thing: Borrow one of our museum passes!

The Library has passes to 20 different museums on Long Island and in New York City. They include Brooklyn Botanic Garden, Children's Museum of Manhattan, Cradle of Aviation Museum, Frick Collection, Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum, Long Island Children's Museum, Nassau County Museum of Art, Old Bethpage Village Restoration, Suffolk County Vanderbilt Museum and more. Most passes admit a family of four, and some restrictions apply, such as for special museum events and exhibits.

Passes are available to be picked up the day before your planned visit and must be returned the day after the visit.

To borrow a pass or browse the collection, go to the library's website at www.shpl.info>Departments>Children's Services>Museum Passes. Passes are available only to South Huntington Library cardholders.

Want to Learn Another Language?

The library offers a free, online language learning service called Pronunciator. You can learn a new language with online courses conducted in any of 50 different languages. Pronunciator also offers a substantial English as a Second Language (ESL) curriculum. This resource can be used on a personal computer or a portable device as well as on a public computer at the library where you can request assistance from a librarian.

To access: Go to the library's website at www.shpl.info and click on the blue "Learn a Language" button on the left. You will need a South Huntington Library card to create your free account, which will allow you to keep track of your courses and progress. If you need assistance, please see a librarian or call 631.549.4411.

Need Help With Digital Services?

South Huntington patrons who need help with e-books, audiobooks, digital magazines or streaming services can make an appointment with a librarian for assistance.

Librarians can help you download the required apps, set up your account and show you how to access free digital content from the library on your portable device.

To make an appointment, please call Howard Spiegelglass, head of adult services, at 631.549.4411.

DIGITAL COLLECTIONS

Looking for e-books?

Did you know that South Huntington cardholders have access to an exclusive collection of e-books and audiobooks? You can also borrow titles from the countywide collection.

Stream music, video, TV, audiobooks and more, 24/7, with your South Huntington Library card. Free content for your mobile device, tablet or computer.

Read your favorite magazines online. Whether you like cooking, fashion, news, sports or travel, there's sure to be something for everyone.
