LIBRARIES TRANSFORM

Pictured here are library staff members from our Facility Maintenance Department. They work tirelessly to keep our building the safe, clean, beautiful, and inviting place that it is. They work hard every day to ensure the continuous smooth operation of the building and all equipment, as well as the coordination of program set-ups and special events that take place at the library on a regular basis. From snow removal in the winter to the planting and maintaining of our spectacular grounds and outdoor gardens, our maintenance professionals' mission is to make sure that your experience here at the library is a pleasant one.

They do this every day because of you, our community!
