They can be heard throughout the U.S., garnering an impressive record of instant re-engagements.

Maksim and Misuzu first met in December 2012 and, as avid chamber music collaborators, instantly felt a unique artistic connection resulting in an inspiring and creative friendship. Both artists are graduates of The Juilliard School.

All welcome!

Alfred Van Loen Gallery

'Human Nature' featuring work by Louise Millmann, Susan Kozodoy Silkowitz and Pamela Waldroup. Nov. 5-Dec. 28

Meet the Artists: Sat. Nov. 5, 2-4 p.m.

These talented photographers have different approaches, but their work has a common thread. Photographs of people can transport the viewer, perhaps letting them identify with an anonymous person or imagining a life different than their own.

Susan Kozodoy Silkowitz has been photographing people since the 1970s. Her photos of people on the street are candid shots.

Louise Millmann is frequently the subject of her own photography and sometimes enlists friends. These staged shots are made while waiting around on film sets.

Pamela Waldroup uses her camera to document her experiences. Her portraits were taken over a span of 20 years and reflect her connection to her subject.

The exhibit may be viewed during regular library hours. Look for a virtual exhibit on www.shpl.info Using the Library > Van Loen Gallery.

Your Money

Divorce & Paying for College (V)
Wed., Nov. 9 at 7 p.m.

Preparing to send your children to college is always a stressful time. Now add to that the emotional and financial stress of a divorce -- certainly not an easy time for parents to navigate both of these major life events. In this one-hour live Zoom session hosted by Vicki Vollweiler of College Financial Prep, we'll discuss divorce, various types of colleges that may financially benefit divorced or divorcing parents (even if one parent is high net worth), financial aid, merit scholarships, student loans and more to help parents minimize the cost of college and reduce the potential need for student loan debt. Bring your questions! Register for Zoom link beginning Nov. 1.

Smarter Social Security
Mon., Nov. 14 at 7 p.m.

An AARP survey determined that half of its respondents who were either married or had ever been married were aware that they were entitled to spousal benefits from Social Security. Financial expert Daniel Mazzola will provide an overview of the Social Security retirement program while examining in detail spousal benefits and ways to optimize them. All welcome.

FAFSA Assistance
Mon., Nov. 15 at 7 p.m.

A Youth Advancement Counselor from Project

Excel will demonstrate how to fill out the digital form, line by line, for a stress-free process. Each registration allows for 2 people per household to attend due to space constraints. Please set up your FSA ID at least 2 days before this program so you can complete your form. You will also need the following: W2 forms for 2021, tax returns from 2021, and Social Security numbers of student and parents. South Huntington cardholders register beginning Nov. 4.

Gardens & Nature

Fall Into Monarchs
Thurs., Nov. 3 at 7 p.m.

Monarch butterflies are among the most recognizable insects in America, with an astounding autumn migration seen throughout Long Island lasting thousands of miles. Although an iconic species, a series of man-made problems are causing an ongoing and serious population decline. Join biologist Dr. Coby Klein to find out about the monarch's life cycle, what they do for us, and what we can do for them. Participants will go home with milkweed seeds. (This program was rescheduled from September.)

Long Island Rose Society
Sat., Nov. 12 at 1 p.m.

Autumn floral arrangements featuring roses will be created by a floral designer from the Long Island Rose Society. Instruction on how to create the floral designs, in celebration of the Fall season and Thanksgiving, will be presented by Marion Romeo an Accredited National Garden Clubs, Inc. Master Judge.

She will cover which essential oils to reach for in order to boost the immune system, offer respiratory support and provide some winter blues relief. Each participant will receive a kit with essential oil samples and informational handouts. There is a $10 materials fee. South Huntington cardholders register beginning Nov. 9, others Nov. 16, if there is space.

Online Resources Can Help Trace Your Roots

When we gather with loved ones for the holidays, it can make us wonder how our families came to be. Here are some free resources available at the library that can help you discover your family tree.

Ancestry.com

South Huntington patrons can use Ancestry.com, which has public records databases, from census records and Social Security to military and immigration records. In-library use only. Please visit the Reference Desk to get started.

Ellis Island

Search the free Ellis Island archives for passenger records and manifests for those who passed through Ellis Island and the Port of New York between 1892 and 1924.

Fold3

Access to military records, including the stories, photos, and personal documents of men and women who served.

HeritageQuest Online

This resource features U.S. federal census records from 1790-1950. It also has Revolutionary War-era records as well as Freedman's Bank (1861-1875), and Native American census records.

Passenger and Immigration List Index

Lists are compiled from historical publications, naturalization records, government documents, ship manifests, and other historical sources.

Historic Newspapers

Search for ancestors in historic newspaper databases.
